

Policy on Payment for Dropped Courses

In accordance with Hebrew Seminary's Tuition Payment Policy dated June 23 2023, all students at Hebrew Seminary are responsible for paying for all courses for which they are registered. Students may elect to drop a course without being charged for any of the course's tuition within 3 weeks of the course's first session, without penalty. In the event that a student elects to drop a course for which they are registered, after 1 month from the time of the first session, the student will be billed a $300.00 withdrawal fee. Exceptions to this policy must be appealed to the Dean of Students and Rosh Yeshivah of Hebrew Seminary and may be granted at their joint discretion. Students will not receive credit for any dropped classes.

Approved September 6, 2023